Description:

The relationship between an object and its surroundings has become increasingly important in determining the quality of what we "design" and "plan": using a light touch ensures a creative mix of good taste and balance. We do not simply want to produce an item of furniture, we want to live with it. In addition to the large seat that welcomes you among the various models of the Sabal collection, the proposal also offers the version with the side table; the comfort of a seat and the ease of being able to live at best with a drink your outdoor environment are well satisfied by the many compositions and alternatives that these sofas offer. Coordinating the many outdoor fabrics or laminate tops with the steel structure of these sofas will be your further possibility to create the corner of the garden you have always desired.
